THE EASTERN STAR.

Queen Esther Chapter Formally Instituted.

MANY GRAND OFFICERS PRESENT.

Recently Elected Officers Installed—Many Masons and Their Wives and Daughters saw the interesting Exercises.

The institution of Queen Esther Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, and the installation of the recently elected officers, were performed publicly at Hoffman Lodge's rooms, Tuesday night, in the presence of a large party of Masons and their families.

The lodge rooms were prettily decorated for the occasion with down and flags, and the room presented a most attractive appearance when the programme of the evening was commenced.

The following were the installing officers:

Grand Patron William J. Duncan, of New York; Most Worthy Grand Matron Mrs. M. Eva Williams, of Binghamton; Grand Conductor Sarah Murphy, of Brooklyn; Grand Lecturer C. B. Parker, of Westchester; Grand Marshal Henry Van Minden, of New York; Acting Grand Chaplain James D. Davies, of Brooklyn; Past Grand Matron Daisy Buttner, of New York; Grand Secretary Christine Buttner, of New York; Acting Grand Treasurer Mrs. John Hancock, of Brooklyn; Associate Grand Conductor Mrs. Florence Beatty, of Brooklyn.

The officers installed were:

Worthy Patron—W. H. Biggin. Worthy Matron—Mrs. A. E. Ludington. Asst. Matron—Mrs. Willis G. Tice. Conductor—Mrs. E. B. Quirk. Asst. Conductor—Mrs. T. Walsh. Secretary—Mrs. D. C. Roe. Organist—Emma E. Korn. Chaplain—Rev. Newton Emory. Marshal—R. B. Lewis. Adah—Mrs. R. L. Lewis. Ruth—Mrs. Charles V. Puff. Esther—Mrs. J. M. Phillips. Martha—Mrs. W. C. F. Baston. Electa—Mrs. W. H. Salmon.

After the installation Worthy Patron Biggin made a cordial address of welcome, which was responded to by Most Worthy Matron Williams in particularly well-chosen and well-delivered remarks.

Rev. J. Newton Emory then presented to Mrs. Biggin, secretary of the chapter, a beautiful gold pin, emblematical of the order, the gift of the members of Queen Esther Chapter. Mrs. Biggin responded in words so fittingly as to win the admiration of all present.

Worthy Matron then called upon the following for short addresses:

Mrs. M. Eva Williams, G. M., William J. Duncan, G. P., Mrs. V. I. Mollebourne, V. G. M., C. B. Parker, as A. G. P.; Mrs. Anna L. Brooks, P. G. M., Miss Levina Abbott, as G. T., Mrs. C. Butterick, G. See; Mrs. Sarah Murphy, G. C., Mrs. Florence B. Bentlee, A. G. C., Mrs. Almira Henderson, G. A., Mrs. Louise Holt, G. R., Mrs. Julia C. Hancock, G. Esther, Mrs. Phoebe J. Sinsalaugh, G. M., James D. Davies, G. Chap., John B. Garley, as G. L., Henry Von Minden, G. Marshal.

The speeches were all appropriate to the occasion and eulogistic of the order.

The ladies were especially clever and entertaining and the speeches proved to be a pleasing diversion to the Masons, who attend the sessions of Hoffman Lodge. Jerenine L. Barnes, Master of the latter lodge, was called upon and made brief remarks in which he congratulated the new chapter on the bright auspices under which it entered the world of secret societies.

A fine musical programme was rendered during the evening under the direction of Mrs. Bertha Olney.

The complete programme was as follows:

Piano Solo—W. M. Biggin. Violin Solo—Wm. Roebuck. J. E. Becker. Will Helm. Singing Solo—Mrs. C. Butterick. Violin Solo—Fred Clark. Recitations—Mrs. Jordan and Mrs. Bryant. Refreshments closed the evening's entertainment.

There were a large number of visitors from other places in attendance, who heartily enjoyed the event.

This morning, the visiting officers were hospitably entertained by the ladies of Queen Esther Chapter. A special trolley car took the party over the line.

Following is a list of the charter members of the local order:

Mesdames Jennie L. Quick, Julia A. Roe, Alzada L. Ludington, Mary E. Tice, Madeline Walsh, Minnie E. Biggin, Wm. H. Biggin, Madelines Harriet J. Hale, Margaret Smith, Miriam E. Mills, Diana D. DUTCHES COUNTY SNAKES.

Leap 50 Feet Headless and Survive Cutting in Two.

There are snakes in Dutchess county, greater even than those in the vicinity of Port Jervis. The Poughkeepsie News-Peace tells this of one. The other day Charles Roberts of Boston Corners went into his horse stable and there in a vacant stall lay a nice big coil of rattlesnake. The snake was apparently sleeping. Roberts armed himself with a long handled shovel and got into the manger. The rattle raised up its black head and defiantly disclosed its venomous fangs. Roberts had been all that many a time before, and the rattling of the rattle did not "rattle" him in the least; he swung out a heavy blow with the shovel and beheaded the snake the first blow. It measured four feet; a post mortem examination disclosed that the reptile had died that day on a full sized rat and a mouse. Mr. Roberts says that he has killed them that contained rabbit brains, fully grown; he also states that it is a mistaken idea that the age of a snake can be told by the number of rattles, he has seen small snakes, surely not over a year old, with four and five rattles. This one had seven rattles and was probably a dozen years old. It coiled and sprang at least fifty feet after its head was cut off.

A snake story is told by the Chatham Courier of some workmen who were recently cleaning out the small stream in Lebanon Springs. They discovered a large black snake which they had cut in two near the extremity of the tail, when it immediately turned around, took the tail in its mouth and disappeared into a hole in the ground.

A RAILROAD'S VICTIM.

George Bergstrasser, Whose Mother and Stepfather Are Said to Live Here, Killed in Illinois.

The programme consisted of several Scottish songs by Mrs Amy Murray, songs by Miss Leverich, of Brooklyn, and Wm. Wall Whidby, of Goshen, two recitations by the Rev. D. J. Evans, of Middletown, and an address by Rev. R. H. McReady, of Chester, who explained very satisfactorily the object of the proposed institute and the benefits it would confer on the colored people of Orange county. He eulogized Mrs. Jackson very warmly for the energy and devotion with which she had taken it up and left sure the community would respond generously to her noble effort.

The local team is to be strengthened by Tierney, Genegal and two others.

Movements of Players—Notes of Games.

To-morrow, the managers of the Middletown, Ellenville, Wardsboro, Port Jervis, Carbondale and Honesdale clubs will meet at Port Jervis to arrange the schedule of games for the new league. Next week the games will commence in real earnest, and with generous patronage a good season's amusement should be assured.

The local team is to be strengthened by Tierney and Genegal, and two others whose names Manager Kane has not yet announced.

The grounds are in fine shape since the rain, and when the strong Honesdale appear here, Friday afternoon, it is quite likely that visitors will find them more comfortable.

Chenege and his brother, Tony, went to Port Jervis, this morning, and this afternoon, the former played with Port Jervis against Honesdale. The latter is the strongest team in the league and will probably win the game.

The Wardsboro team, which is to play in the Wayne-Orange league, will pay a visit to Port Jervis, Saturday.

Peter Agnew left for Atlantic City, today, where he will play with the team at that place for the remainder of the season.

The Crescents, a local team, are playing against a team of darks from Fulton street under the name of the Cuban Giants. Bulletins were posted about town to that effect, this morning, causing many to believe that the real Cuban would be the strongest team in the league and will probably win the game.

Chenege and his brother, Tony, went to Port Jervis, this morning, and this afternoon, the former played with Port Jervis against Honesdale. The latter is the strongest team in the league and will probably win the game.

The programme over, an auction was held of many articles donated for the cause, including an original poem of great merit and a water color by Mrs. Jackson herself and many valuable pieces of brea-trac. Refreshments were subsequently served at tables on the lawn by a corps of charming Campbellites, and at 7 o'clock the homeward exodus began not without many thanks to the fair hostess for the delightful afternoon which all had enjoyed.

HYMENEAL.

Moore—Waters.

The wedding of Charles S. Moore and Miss Mary Waters, daughter of Mrs. Anna Waters, of 64 Wawayanda avenue, occurs at St. Joseph's Church, at 4 o'clock, this afternoon. The ceremony will be performed by Dran McClancy.

The bride will be attended by Miss Anna Lenahan and the best man will be Emmet Durham.

A reception will follow the ceremony at the home of the bride's mother and the happy couple will leave on an evening train for a wedding journey.

Mr. Moore is a marble cutter and is employed by his father. He is deservedly popular among his friends and acquaintances and in every way worthy of the estimable young woman whose hand he has won.

The Anous extends congratulations.

Funeral of Hazel B. Tuthill.

The funeral of little Hazel B., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel D. Tuthill, was held, this afternoon, at 2:30, at the bereaved home, No. 123 Linden avenue. The house was filled with sympathizing friends and the casket was nearly hidden under floral tributes. Rev. Dr. Beattie officiated and A. D. Martin and Miss Cora Marvin sang two selections. Burial was in Hillside.

Heroic Treatment Recommended to a Delaware County Girl.

A Griffin Corners, Delaware county, girl sent a dollar to a smart New York man for a cure for freckles. This is what she got. Remove the freckles carefully with a pocketknife; soak them over night in salt water; then hang up in the smoke house in a good strong smoke made of sawdust and slippery elm bark for a week. Thus treated freckles never fail to be thoroughly cured.

Waukill Engine Co.'s Social.

Waukill Engine Company's social at the truck house, Tuesday night, was a great success. The truck house and lawn were thronged with dancers until a late hour. During the evening DeWitt Drum, Fife and Bugle Corps paid the company a visit and gave them some music. The affair was splendidly managed.

To Be Appointed D. D. C. W. for First Orange District.

Grand Master Trautman, of New York, has announced his intention to appoint G. P. Thomas W. Emory, of Newburgh, District Deputy Grand Master for the First Orange District in place of Charles W. Myers, of Walden, suspended August 21, 1865. He was never married.

SURE CURE FOR FRECKLES.

Invitations have been issued for the marriage of Miss Anna Campbell, who is now in the Port Jervis hospital slowly recovering from pistol shot wounds inflicted by Constable Hotchkiss, of Newton, can be moved he will be taken to Newton, Gov. Roosevelt having signed the requisition papers in the case.

Miss Lila Stewart's Nyack Kirtness.

Miss Lila Stewart, of this city, is in Nyack arranging for the kirtness and spok-kartenfest, which she is to give there. The Star says that 200 persons were present at the preliminary meeting, Monday evening, and that much interest and enthusiasm were manifested. Miss Stewart gave a very successful kirtness two years ago.

Change of Priests at Liberty.

THE DANGER LINE

For overworked nerves and wasting vitality is headache, dizziness, inability to sleep, loss of appetite and a general run down condition of the system. These signs are sometimes accompanied by neuralgia, hysteria, rheumatism or nervous prostration. To remove them, cure the nerves. They need feeding, strengthening and building up, and nothing will do this quickly and so surely as Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine. It has helped thousands of men and women to regain lost health.

"My wife has taken Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine with very good results. She had been troubled with sleeplessness and extreme nervous headaches which nearly prostrated her. Soon after she began using Dr. Miles' Nervine she was very much improved in every way. I have used Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills for head aches and feel much better."

T. W. PELLETTE,

134 South St., Newburg, N. Y.

All druggists are authorized to sell Dr. Miles' Nervine on a guarantee that first bottle will benefit or money will be refunded. Be sure and get Dr. Miles' Nervine. Write for free booklet on heart and nerves.

PILES

"I suffered the tortures of the damned with piles for two years, until I was relieved by taking Cascarets. Since then I have been well and have never had any trouble with piles again. I am entirely free from piles and feel like a new man."

C. H. KIRKETT, 101 Jones St., Sioux City, Ia.
